

John Burchill

*Board Director
since 2016*

John is currently a civilian manager of Strategic Issues with the Winnipeg Police Service. Prior to re-joining the Police Service he had worked as a Crown Attorney with Manitoba Justice and a Risk Manager with the University of Manitoba. Previously had been a sworn police officer for 25 years, over half of which was in Criminal Investigations.

Besides Rossbrook House, John also sits on the Board of the Manitoba Human Rights Commission as the Vice-Chairperson and is Vice-President of the Winnipeg Police Museum and Historical Society.

Rossbrook House Board of Directors