“ROSSBROOK HOUSE PLAYS A PART IN KIDS’ LIVES FOR YEARS – FROM LITTLE ONES THROUGH TO THEIR TEENS AND INTO ADULTHOOD. THAT CONNECTION IS AMAZING AND THE MOST UNIQUE FEATURE OF THE SERVICES PROVIDED.”

Melissa is the President of the Winnipeg Labour Council, elected in 2020. Prior to that, her entire career has been in community-based social services working directly with children, teens and families. She has always been a labour and community advocate standing up for workers and the most vulnerable in her community. As WLC President she has been rebuilding a supportive well-functioning team of labour activists, engaging and collaborating with delegates, like-minded community groups and adapting to challenging times. Melissa cares about solidarity and working together to make our neighbourhoods, city, and province a place where people want to live and raise their families and where no one is left behind.
