

Rachel Sansregret

*Board Director
since 2020*

Rachel has worked in Winnipeg's urban Indigenous community for the last 8 years primarily in the North End and Point Douglas areas. She is the program coordinator for the Winnipeg Friendship Centre Program and serves as the CEO of the Winnipeg Indigenous Friendship Centre. She has a Bachelors' degree in psychology from the University of Manitoba.

Rachel is passionate about providing a better quality of life for youth, seniors, children and families facing challenges resulting from systemic racism and intergenerational trauma. She looks forward to revitalizing a Friendship Centre as a supportive hub for Winnipeg's urban Indigenous community.
