

Marc Unger

Marc, a solicitor with a western Canadian law firm, arrived in Winnipeg in 2017 and quickly grew to appreciate the people, places, and Manitoba's distinct culture. Stemming from his desire to further engage/ contribute to the development of Winnipeg's community and valuable local initiatives, Marc joined the Rossbrook House Foundation Board of Directors in June 2020 and is currently co-chair of the Foundation's Nominating & Governance Committee and a member of its Finance & Investment Committee.
