

"No child who does not want to be alone, should ever have to be"
– Sister MacNamara

Rossbrook House 2021-2022 Annual Report

Executive Director's Report

This is my last annual report to a beloved group of friends and supporters of Rossbrook House. Those creating a safe, engaging community with opportunities to belong, grow and give back; so that children and youth can play, learn, and become... Where 'no child who does not want to be alone, should ever have to be'.

The wonder and success of Rossbrook House is the coming together of people with a common vision for a just and compassionate society. With all our individual strengths and brokenness, we arrive and experience the goodness that comes from offering our individual gifts and becoming a part of the whole. Our joy and optimism are borne daily in this endeavor.

Rossbrook House will continue its journey with a full circle moment of having former participant, Patricia Mainville, return to Rossbrook House as its new Executive Director. Patricia and I will work together in September, and after that she will carry on with you to bring new joys into the community. Her devotion to education, community, culture, and reconciliation will enrich the Rossbrook neighborhood and foster growth of a healthy city.

In the April 1 to March 31 reporting year, the Rossbrook House staff once again took centre stage, working the second year of the pandemic and keeping our doors open 365 days and 24 hours on 206 of those days. They brought back all the activities the kids love, tailoring them to the restrictions of the day.

It was also an amazing year of capital improvements that included having our elevator completely refurbished, getting our foundation fixed, renovating our two downstairs washrooms, and receiving a brand-new transit passenger van for outings and safe rides home. We have since had the roof done and will soon reclaim some pavement for a more environmental and inviting landscape in the front of the building. Not bad!

I leave you with immense gratitude for walking alongside, and learning from, the children and youth at Rossbrook House, one day at a time.

Phil Chiappetta

Phil Chiappetta
 Executive Director • Rossbrook House

President's Report

As we gradually resumed more programming for children and youth, eager to once again enter through our doors to 'belong, play, learn and become...' Not to mention share a good, hot meal, this past year has been truly bittersweet for those of us on the Rossbrook House Board of Directors.

With the fall 2022 retirement of long-time Executive Director, Phil Chiappetta, who's been with Rossbrook House since its beginnings, much of the last several months has involved conducting an intensive community search for a new Executive Director of Rossbrook House and Rossbrook House Foundation. Few embody the passionate heart and gentle soul of Rossbrook House quite like our beloved Phil and this task weighed heavily on the Selection Committee.

Turns out, however, that when good people come together to do good things for the right reason, amazing things can happen. Right here in our community was Patricia Mainville – former Rossbrook House participant, junior staff, and Young Moms' program participant – who'd gone on to become a leader in public education, reconciliation, and philanthropy. In short, we could not have imagined a better individual to carry on the hopeful legacy of Sister Geraldine MacNamara, Sister Bernadette O'Reilly, Sister Lesley Sacouman, Maria Vigna, and Phil Chiappetta.

Words cannot express, Phil, how grateful we are for all you've given of yourself and what your efforts will allow us to be for children and youth into the future.

Thanks also to the amazing commitment and devotion of current staff, Rossbrook House has not only endured but grown stronger through the pandemic, both building new and solidifying existing community relationships, rejuvenating our facility for the next generation, and planning for a new and inspiring era of leadership.

Plus, big hats off to our volunteers! The dynamic partnership between our volunteers and staff remains key to the success of Rossbrook House. We simply couldn't do it without the many caring Winnipeggers who tirelessly donate their time and talents.

To each and every one of you who supported Rossbrook House in ways big and small over the past year, we deeply appreciate you joining us on this ongoing journey of hope. With an activity-filled summer upon us – as usual, doors are open round the clock – we look forward to a fall of fond farewell and inspiring transition as Patricia takes up the torch!
