“WHEN A CHILD
CHOOSES TO COME
THROUGH THE DOORS
OF ROSSBROOK HOUSE,
THEY FIND A HAVEN
OF SAFETY, SUPPORT,
AND FUN.”

Brenda began her relationship with Rossbrook House many years ago as the staff person responsible for the United Way of Winnipeg Speakers Bureau. While at United Way, she worked closely with many agencies devoted to inner-city families and development, including the Social Planning Council, the Community Education Development Committee, and the intergovernmental Inner City Review Committee. Since 2000, she's worked as a Communications Specialist with the Manitoba Government and General Employees' Union. She is also the award-winning author of three novels and a collection of short stories set in Winnipeg.
