

“IT’S ALWAYS THERE. IT’S THE ONE CONSTANT IN SOME KIDS’ LIVES.”

Janine has a background in human resources with an emphasis on recruitment, management and assessing training needs.

Janine served as a program coordinator with an inner-city youth program and later as a board member.

Most recently she worked for the provincial government in Workforce Training and Employment, with the emphasis to get unemployed Manitoban's training to find and keep meaningful work.