

Karen Cook

Karen is currently Project Manager, Community Engagement with the University of Manitoba's Rady Faculty of Health Sciences. Her work involves connecting to and collaborating with the community, the WRHA, volunteer agencies, and across departments within the Faculty. Previously, she worked within the non-profit industry; the Manitoba Urban Native Housing Association (MUNHA) and the Women's Enterprise Centre of Manitoba.

Rossbrook House Foundation Board of Directors