

"No child who does not want to be alone, should ever have to be"

— Sister MacNamara

Rossbrook House 2023-2024 ANNUAL REPORT

MESSAGE FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

As I reflect on the past year, I can confidently say that our friends, supporters, staff, and volunteers of Rossbrook House are successful in adhering to our vision in providing a safe place where

At Rossbrook House, we were able to stay open 365 days and be open to our children and youth 24 hours when school was not in session. We strengthened our programming by listening to what our children and youth were requesting while staying within our budget with the growing costs of materials, food, gas, and cost of living.

We built community partnerships, developed life-skills programming including education and employment training, and supported youth mental health needs by addressing it in our programming. We understood that working effectively meant finding new ways of operating as we navigated the needs of our children and youth. With the provision of our board, our community, donors, and supporters, we are better equipped as a team to thrive, to do more, and to actively work to facilitate the change we want to see.

In order, for us to do this, we are always looking at ways to broaden our base of support.

Expenses do go up at Rossbrook House and recently we have responded to the needs of more young children coming through our doors. There is a need for more food, more activities, and more staff hours to cover new activities and supervision. We rely on our supporters to help keep our doors open to do the vital work that is needed to ensure that children and youth continue to have a safe space.

Rossbrook House Foundation continues to support programs and operations of Rossbrook House in their fundraising events and activities. They are already in the planning phases of 2024-2025 activities. Please stay tuned to our newsletters, social media posts, and website for new opportunities and initiatives to support the kids. Please help us to share that information to help to spread the word about Rossbrook House and the need that we have to provide programs to the up to 80 children and youth who walk in our doors daily.

It was a wonderful year filled with children thriving at Rossbrook House. With staff working diligently to ensure that every child is met at the door, welcomed, and provided a sense of belonging in a space where children are meant to belong, play, learn and become....

Thank you for your support!

P. Mainville

Executive Director

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

As incoming President this past year, I write this report with great humility and a profound sense of pride in the Rossbrook House staff and community. I am especially happy to have had the opportunity to work alongside our Executive Director, Patty Mainville, who has just completed her first full year with Rossbrook House.

Together we have worked diligently to continue to make Rossbrook House a safe home away from home for our youth. This has included stepping back and re-imagining how we do this through a lens of continuous improvement, greater efficiencies, and staff development; all while taking to heart Sister MacNamara's vision of long ago, 'no child who does not want to be alone, should ever have to be'.

This process of re-imagining also included the new exterior of the building. With utmost gratitude and respect to the founders and former leadership, Patty, staff, and the participants unveiled the new front exterior of Rossbrook House. Despite the rain or rather in spite of it, the unveiling ceremony was filled with nothing but feelings of gratitude, warmth, and a close-knit community. Thank you to local artist, Ursula Neufeld, and the Eagles' Circle students and drop-in participants who worked excitedly over many months to launch this very fitting mural.

None of the work we do or strategic directions we take are possible without our wider community of support, including Rossbrook House Foundation. Thank you to our funders, donors, staff, leadership and especially our children and youth who make us want to do better day after day.
