

Kim Keating

"I FIRST LEARNED ABOUT ROSSBROOK HOUSE AND ITS INSPIRING WORK THROUGH A FRIEND. I CARE DEEPLY ABOUT THE FUTURE OF OUR CITY AND COMMUNITY. ENSURING THAT NO CHILD IS LEFT ALONE, AND YOUTH ARE PROVIDED WITH THE SUPPORT AND OPPORTUNITIES THEY REQUIRE TO REACH THEIR FULL POTENTIAL IS IMPORTANT TO ME. I AM PROUD TO SUPPORT THE WORK OF ROSSBROOK HOUSE."

Kim has been employed with the Workers Compensation Board (WCB) of Manitoba for over 20 years. Her current role is the Manager of Strategic Engagement and Certification. Kim leads a passionate team that work on WCB strategic initiatives to minimize the impact of workplace injuries and illnesses in the province of Manitoba.

Kim holds a Bachelor of Commerce (honours) degree and a Certificate in Adult and Continuing Education (CACE) both from the University of Manitoba. Kim is also a Certified Health and Safety Consultant (CHSC), Certified Disability Management Professional (CDMP), and has completed her certificate in Workplace Response to Mental Health program through Pacific Coast University.

Kim served as a volunteer for a number of organizations before joining the Rossbrook House Foundation board.

Rossbrook House Foundation Board of Directors